A Special Invitation from the Kensington Historical Society

Join Us for Our Artful Garden Party

An Invitation from the Kensington Historical Society

Every year our community grows a little.

This year we're planning our Annual Historical Society Garden Party to bring the community together on June 6th. Please come and share house histories and meet neighbors, new and old! The Montgomery Art Association (sponsors of the Labor Day Paint the Town Art Show) will have local artists exhibiting artwork with a Kensington theme. The artists may be willing to part with some of their work, so bring your checkbooks. (Local artists can participate through the Montgomery Art Association – VSurlesGraphics@comcast.net)

Party details and a reservation form are attached to this newsletter. Save the date – Saturday, June 6th!

Nods to Newcomers

A warm welcome to MAA to all our new and returning members.

MAY MEETING

Wednesday, April 6, 2009
7:00 P.M. – 8:15 P.M.

Critique

Alejandra Hucek will lead a peer critique. Bring 1 or 2 of your pieces. These can be recently completed or works-in progress that you would like the group to critique. Those member who would like to continue with the rest of Tom Lynch's "Secrets of Painting on Watercolor Canvas," that we began at the last meeting, may come at 6:30 PM.

2009 MAA Scholarship Award

The Montgomery College Art Department Foundation is in the process of selecting the recipients for their 2009 scholarships. Montgomery Art Association provided a $600.00 scholarship again this year. Professor Poliszczuk sends his thanks to Montgomery Art for their continued support of scholarship. We will be notified in the near future of the lucky recipient's and will make it available in next month's newsletter.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Things are kicking into high gear for Montgomery Art. We are busy, busy, busy planning three shows for this summer, not including the one to be held later this year. I am happy to announce for some of us old timers to the organization that I have arranged for a special show in cooperation with the Kensington Historical Society. The KHS president, Julie O'Malley has invited our artists to exhibit at their annual garden party. The idea came to me when thinking about all those wonderful paintings that many artists still have of Kensington subject matter from over the years. Since the KHS is interested in maintaining the memories and present day events of Kensington residents it seemed a good way to make use of our related artwork. Therefore, any artists who have retained inventory (OK my business background is showing) of Kensington artwork is invited to exhibit for sale at the KHS garden party currently scheduled for June 6th. Vicky Surles has kindly volunteered to chair this special show and more information is included in this newsletter.

In the meantime, Edelweiss Calcagno is busy preparing for the Friendship Heights Show and Debra Halprin has been busy preparing for the Kensington Labor Day Show. We are fortunate to have these very dedicated volunteers who are willing to take leadership positions in order that we all may benefit from the opportunities they provide. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Again I encourage a few adventurous members to take on the few open positions on the board. We have a great group of spirited and committed people continuing in their present positions but we need a few new faces to fill spots turning over.

My Best Regards, Sara

Elections

Officers for the 2009-2010 Term:

The election for the new Montgomery Art Association Board of Directors is in progress. Many officers have agreed to continue their current roles in the upcoming term but there a few positions open for some enterprising new members. A few positions require some work on a monthly basis (i.e. newsletter) and some are only as needed (i.e. hospitality). We hope that you will consider joining the board and find out what a rewarding experience it can be.

Kensington Paint the Town Show, Labor Day Weekend, Sept 4-7, 2009

See Attachments to the newsletter.

The annual Kensington Labor Day "Paint the Town" Show preparations are well under way. They are distributing the applications to area college art departments and other art organizations. Please keep in mind that the planned fulfillment of the volunteer requirement must be determined upon application.

There are no exceptions to the 2-4 hour volunteer requirement for participation in this show. This is the largest show MAA does and business has always been very brisk. Therefore we feel that is important that all participants should lend at least a brief hand before, during, or after this show. Many opportunities are available for help needed prior to the actual show weekend with publicity and solicitation of prizes. Apply early so you may have your choice of volunteer positions! (And the best part is the fun you will have!)

Exhibits & Member News

Laura-Leigh Palmer, long-time MAA member, who makes mixed media work that are dynamic, creative, and exciting, was featured at the Wheaton & Kensington Chamber of Commerce- Networking Coffee & Book Release. The event took place on April 16th at the DeJaBel Café. Palmer discussed her just-published Wheaton - Images of America, which includes discoveries made while researching the book. An article about the book appeared in The Gazette. Please check it out at: http://www.gazette.net/stories/03252009/wheanew192523_32476.shtml. Laura-Leigh will also be appearing at other nearby locations soon including the Kensington Row Bookshop where copies of her book are currently available.
