President's Message

Happy New Year MAA!

Our member year began last September with our fabulous and very successful Kensington Paint the Town Labor Day weekend show. We have many shows, activities, and programs yet to come.

Our regular monthly MAA gatherings are now back on track. Regretfully, the December holiday party had to be canceled due to complications related to the change of management of the Wilkins Avenue venue. Glen Kessler has generously offered MAA the use of his new studio and 'Compass Atelier' space in the Wilkins Avenue building (formerly Washington Art Works, now Artists & Makers 2). There are plenty of tables and chairs, and even room for our entire membership at once — so even though it might be cold outside, come in and enjoy our collective warmth and enlightening art talks. We always meet the second Wednesday of the month, from 6:30 for socializing and refreshments, and 7:00 – 8:30 for the speaker program.

On February 8th we will hold our traditional mid-winter Valentine's social – a highlight of that, other than good cheer and refreshments, is our Valentine's Day Card competition, with prizes. All members and guests are invited to attend these meeting, so bring a friend.

I hope that you have had a terrific holiday break and I wish you a healthy, enjoyable, and creative 2017.

Create on,
Barrie

Strathmore Artists Membership Program Ending

MAA has learned that the Strathmore Hall Foundation Inc. has decided to discontinue its Strathmore Artists membership. Strathmore will honor all current Strathmore Artists benefits through March 31, 2017. All existing Strathmore Artists memberships will be extended through the remainder of the program, regardless of renewal date.

Watercolor Workshop

Graham Berry, an award-winning artist from the U.K., will be teaching a watercolor workshop at Artists Makers Studios 2 in Rockville on May 19-21, 2017. The workshop will be appropriate for students of all skill levels. For more information visit www.colleenhenderson.com/Workshop_WC.html.

OASIS Looking for a Curator

OASIS is seeking a creative and highly motivated person to curate and help develop the future direction of an emerging community art gallery. Hours and workplace are flexible.

OASIS is a non-profit educational organization active in more than 50 cities and reaching more than 50,000 individuals each year. The OASIS Art Gallery, located in Westfield Montgomery Mall in Bethesda, engages the community by showcasing local artistic talent. The gallery is part of the OASIS common space. The art is rotated every eight weeks.

The Art Gallery Curator is responsible for the following:

- Developing and implementing outreach strategies for identifying prospective artists.
- Devising communication strategies in order to increase exposure of the gallery.
- Working with the Gallery Manager to prepare and present all proposals for consideration by the Visual Art Committee at its quarterly meetings.
- Overseeing art installation if artist is not present (this does not include physically hanging the art – other volunteers will help with that as needed).

- Attending art gallery openings and introducing the artist during the opening reception.
- Creating a development plan to fund this curatorial position

This is a volunteer position at this time. It requires approximately 25 hours per month. Most of the work can be done online or at home. This would be ideal for a self-motivated arts professional or student.

Contact: Leah Russi, Office Manager, Washington Metropolitan OASIS, c/o Macy's Home Store, 7125 Democracy Blvd, Bethesda, MD 20817; lrussi1@jhmi.edu; (301) 469-6800, press 1, x211; oasisnet.org/washington

Terry Pellmar to Show at OASIS Art Gallery

MAA member Terry Pellmar is starting the year with a solo show at the OASIS Art Gallery. Over 30 of her pieces will be on display. The exhibition will run from January 11 to March 3, 2017.

OASIS is located in Montgomery Mall at the rear of Macy's Home Store on the second level. Come visit!

Gallery News And Notes

This part of the newsletter is designed to provide you with art news and information about interesting shows at the many local art galleries. If you are aware of an event, news or an exhibit, large or small, that you think would be of interest, please send an email to JULevineRN@aol.com. If going to one of the galleries you have not been to we urge that you contact the gallery or its website to ask about directions and transportation. Parking near the galleries in DC can be difficult, but many of them are accessible via Metro. Unless otherwise noted, admission is free.

“TO HAITI LET US GO” Jacob Lawrence’s The Life of Toussaint L’Ouverture

January 7, 2017-April 23, 2017

Jacobs follows the course of L’Ouverture as he led Haiti to freedom from France.

People on the Move

October 8, 2016-January 8, 2017

People on the Move brings together all of the 60 paintings in The Migration Series by American Master Jacob Lawrence. Lawrence explored what was happening as African Americans moved in huge numbers from the rural south to the cities in the north between 1918 and 1940. It is so powerful. The viewer will come away with a better understanding of this life and culture altering time.

Jake Berthot: From the Collection and Promised Gifts

November 19, 2016-April 2, 2017

Berthot (1939-2014), began as an abstract painter. After a successful career in New York City, he moved back to the Pennsylvania countryside where he had been raised, and his work took a dramatic shift towards landscapes. His style was still very loose, so these works have a dreamlike feeling.

Whitfield Lovell: The Kin Series and Related Works

October 8, 2016-January 8, 2017

Whitfield Lovell’s Kin series juxtaposes his exquisite Conte crayon portraits and the everyday objects the people depicted used. This talented contemporary artist is a perfect match for the Jacob Lawrence works.

Intersections: Arlene Shechet: From Here On Now

October 20, 2016-May 7, 2017

Intersections, a series of projects, explores the way two sometimes radically different objects relate and join together. Each project explores new traditions, modern and contemporary art practices, and museum spaces and artistic interventions. It branches into both traditional and non-traditional exhibition spaces with some surprising and intriguing results.

Visitors to the museum will have to explore to see all of Shechet’s sculptures — they are in five galleries on two floors — but her quirky, almost off-balanced works are worth the time.

The National Gallery of Art

Fourth Street and Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20565; General Information: (202) 737-4215

In the Library: Selections from the Dwan Gallery and Virginia Dwan Archives (East Wing)

(This exhibition is open 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday. It is not open on weekends.)

In the Tower: Barbara Kruger (East Wing)

September 30, 2016-January 22, 2017

Stuart Davis: In Full Swing

November 20, 2016-March 5, 2017

“I don’t want people to copy Matisse or Picasso, although it is entirely proper to admit their influence. I don’t make paintings like theirs. I make paintings like mine.”

Photography Reinvented: The Collection of Robert E. Meyerhoff and Rheda Becker (East Wing)

September 30, 2016-March 5, 2017

Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden

Independence Avenue at Seventh Street SW, Washington, DC; 202-633-1000 or 202-633-5285 (TTY)

This gallery focuses on contemporary artists.

Ragnar Kjartansson

October 14, 2016-January 8, 2017

Ragnar Kjartansson (Reykjavik, Iceland; b. 1976) breaks the mold. His performance art installations, many of which have never been performed before in Washington DC, may change the way you see the relationships between painting, sculpture, and live performances.

Bettina Pousttchi: World Time Clock

June 9, 2016-January 31, 2017

Using the circular form of the gallery itself, these 24 photographs represent the time zones around the globe. Each of the photos was taken at 1:55 PM, giving the exhibit a sense of both time and timelessness.

Masterworks From the Hirshhorn Collection

June 9, 2016-August 6th, 2017

Hirshhorn donated the nearly 6,000 piece collection of works by modern masters that comprise the gallery’s permanent collection. Rodin, Picasso, and de Kooning are just two of the many artists included, many of whom Hirshhorn believed in passionately and supported long before they were known to the public.

February 10, 2016-March 12, 2017

Black Box Series: Linn Meyers: Our View From Here

May 12, 2016-May 14, 2017

"Linn Meyers (American, b. Washington, D.C., 1968; lives and works in Washington, D.C.) will create her largest work, "Our View From Here," at the Smithsonian's Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden this spring. The site-specific wall drawing, which stretches the entire circumference of the inner-circle galleries on the museum's second level, more than 400 linear feet. The drawing is temporary and will be painted over at the end of the exhibition's yearlong run." — Hirshhorn catalog

The Sackler Gallery/The Freer Gallery

1050 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, DC; 202-633-1000

The joint galleries house one of the world's great collections of Asian arts. The Freer houses mostly permanent collections (it may not sell or lend any of its collection), and the Sackler has permanent and short term exhibits. The Freer will be closed from January 2016 to February 7, 2017.

Perspectives: Michael Joo (Sackler)

July 2, 2016-July 9, 2017

Joo is an American artist who draws on his Korean heritage. The work in this show is based on red cranes. As the amount of light flooding the gallery changes with the seasons the vision will shift.

Chinamania

July 9, 2016-June 4, 2017

Walter McConnell's reinstallation of Kangxi porcelains, similar to those in the Peacock room, are his modern vision of the blue and white export porcelains from China that were wildly popular in the late 1800's.

Red: Ming Dynasty/Mark Rothko

September 3, 2016-February 20, 2017

What could be further apart than Mark Rothko, the American abstractionist master, and Chinese monochrome porcelains from the 13th century CE? Exploring the way each used color and texture to create lasting works of art will excite the viewers. Each made pieces that one can look at repeatedly and still see new things.

For a Love of His People: The Photography of Horace Poolaw, DC

November 11, 2016-June 4, 2017

Horace Poolaw (Kiowa, 1906-1984) documented the lives of his people in these gorgeous photographs. He gives you a view of the real world of the Kiowa. It is a fantastic opportunity to see an indigenous people through their own eyes.

The Great Inka Road: Engineering an Empire

June 26, 2015-June 1, 2018

"Construction of the Inka Road stands as one of the monumental engineering achievements in history. A network more than 20,000 miles long, crossing mountains and tropical lowlands, rivers and deserts, the Great Inka Road linked Cusco, the administrative capital and spiritual center of the Inka world, to the farthest reaches of its empire. The road continues to serve contemporary Andean communities across Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Argentina, and Chile as a sacred space and symbol of cultural continuity." — NMAI catalog
