FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Barrie Ripin

Barrie Ripin is an award-winning artist whose drawings, paintings and sculptures are seen in juried art shows, galleries and private collections. He works in a variety of media, including pastel, charcoal, watercolor, inks, oils, encaustics, terra cotta, and stone. And as a retired scientist, he enjoys exploring new approaches in both technique and subject matter.

Barrie is a member of: the MAA, the Alexandria Art League, Friends of the Yellow Barn, Strathmore Artists, Pastel Society of America, MD Pastel Society, Portrait Society of America, Sculpture Society of America, and Washington Sculptors Group. He also is the Curator for the Bethesda Library monthly exhibits.
