FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Max Leason

Max Leason paints in plein air style, accentuating color and tonal relationships without emphasis on drawing. His interest in landscape painting was inspired by the surrounding countryside during several trips in Europe. He's attended classes at the Yellow Barn School and has exhibited with the Rockville Art League, MAA, and the Laurel Art Guild.

Max attended the Corcoran School of Art in the 1950s, receiving an Associate of Arts. He has been a sales representative for Robert Simmons Art Supply Company, a manager for Hecht Copmpany's art supply department, and Manager of Sales Shops at the National Gallery of Art. After retiring from the Gallery, he opened custom frame shops in Rockville and Germantown, before retiring a second time.
