FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Pamela Gordimer

Pamela Gordimer grew up an artist's daughter in the country's heartland, and started painting beside her mother at age six. The simple beauty of the prairie inspired her to look closely at the effects of light and shadow on the landscape through the changing seasons. Her nature and landscape pieces have both realistic and abstract qualities, and are alive with brilliant color and light.

Although Pamela worked as a Pediatric ICU Nurse for years, she still persued art – doing portrait and landscape commissions. After relocating to Texas, she operated a commercial art business doing murals and canvas paintings, and also owned and operated an art gallery. She has been a full-time artist since moving to Maryland, providing art lessons and painting murals and other commissions.
