FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Robin Frosh

Robin Frosh has developed a unique style that is a blend of Eastern design and Western color, using Asian brushes, ink, and watercolor. She focuses on Asian Brush Techniques she has acquired through seminars with Asian Masters, in classes with Betzi Robinson in Virginia, as well as Adult Education classes.

Robin began her artistic career in pottery and studying the glazing process. After learning how to paint bamboo on her pots in an Asian Brush Painting class, she began to study the painting style she has come to love. She is active in the National Capitol Area Chapter of the Sumi-e Society of America, and has exhibited her paintings at venues in Maryland, Virginia, and Canada.
