FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Roxana Rojas

During her childhood in Peru, Roxana Rojas was surrounded by ten older siblings. Frequent cumpleaños (birthdays) and fiestas with friends and family taught her to dance and paint. Her travels as a journalist, interpreter, and Spanish teacher showed her the world, and raising two girls inspires her. She was The Bonnie Brae Foundation's first Artist in Residence at the Historic Boyd-Maughlin House in Boyds, and taught collage workshops, gave lectures, and helped produce of a video about her work.

Roxana's artwork had won awards in her hometown, but it was when she first became pregnant that she began to explore collage. Glue and paper provided the freedom to create contrast, light and motion. She continues to be fascinated by collage, and uses snippets of magazine paper, fabric, her children's paintings, and photographs to enrich the texture and color of her images.
