FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Sandra Cepaitis

Kensington artist Sandra Cepaitis uses her personal experiences... flowers from her garden, and scenes from travel captured in photographs, as inspiration when she paints. The happy accidents that sometimes happen in watercolor require flexibility and her imagination to move a painting in a different direction. After retiring from her 26-year career as an early childhood educator, she had turned to watercolors as a way to express her love of nature and gardening, and studied under Firouzeh Sadeghi, of the Washington Metropolitan Artists' Society.

Sandra has exhibited in many local venues including the Kentlands Mansion, the Sandy Spring Museum, Brookside Gardens, Strathmore, the Kensington Library, the International Exhibition of Fine Art in Miniature, Art at the Mill in Berryville VA, and Penn Place in Garrett Park, MD. Her paintings are in private collections in California, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, North and South Carolina and Virginia.
