FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Galina Kolosovskaya

Born in Russia, Galina Kolosovskaya is known for both her still-life paintings of flowers and birds, and her feather art compositions. In the Russian Far East, she was an active member of the arts community in Khabarovsk. She served as artistic director of the environmental Wildlife Foundation, working for the survival of the Siberian tiger and conservation of Russian flora and fauna. Her passion for wildlife is captured in her imagery.

Galina's work has shown at numerous exhibits in private collections in Russia, Japan, France, Germany, Canada and the USA. She moved to the United States in 2003, and has continued both painting and feather art.
