FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Janet Fox

Janet Fox paints with encaustic (heated pigmented bees wax), mixed media, and acrylic, often layering in fibrous and colorful papers, fabric, ink and found materials. She carves, scrapes, fills, and buffs, building contrasts and textures. Her work is often inspired by vivid sleep-time images or ideas; she also creates from nature and garden themes. Her art blog, including stories about her work, are on her website.

Originally from the Midwest, Janet earned a BS in Occupational Safety and Health from Purdue, worked more than 20 years in the recycling, sustainability and energy-efficiency realms, and managed environmental-themed art exhibits. She is an MAA Board Member, a member of International Encaustic Artists, as well as a freelance writer, editor, content and project support professional.
