FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Tom McCafferty

Tom McCafferty uses multiple media arrangements that are meticulously planned, inviting the observer to move around the painting, keeping them involved. He strives to immerse the viewer into his landscapes as if they were there, and to capture the essence and beauty of objects and people in his compositions. His artistic influences are John Singer Sargent, Vincent Van Gogh, and Egon Schiele for the colors, emotion and feeling in their works.

Tom is originally from the Pittsburgh PA area, and his siblings are all involved in the arts. He moved to the DC area in 1975, and met his wife eight years later while taking painting classes at Montgomery College. They have two daughters who are both very much into the arts.
